

Coming into our church for the first time?

This is what it looks like!

Our front doors will be changing soon but for now this is our entrance.

Then someone will greet you here

And into church itself

We have gender neutral individual toilets, and a space where we offer hot drinks after the service.